

ISABELLE DEMERS

Concert Organist

There is no shortage of organists who make their instruments roar;
and while her power was never in question,
Demers made the instrument sing.”
(Peter Reed, Classical Source.com, England, 2016)

With playing described as having “bracing virtuosity” (Chicago Classical Review), Isabelle Demers has enraptured listeners around the globe for her spellbinding performances. A native of Québec and a graduate of the Juilliard School, Ms. Demers is Organ Professor and Head of the Organ Program at Baylor University in Texas.

She is in continual demand with numerous invitations to perform at conventions by the American Guild of Organists and the Royal Canadian College of Organists. In the summer of 2016 she was a featured recitalist at the AGO’s national convention in Houston and appeared in solo recitals in Canada, Germany, Great Britain, and China.

Her critically acclaimed recordings on the Acis and the ProOrgano labels have been heralded as “expressive...profound and searching” (RSCM’s Church Music Quarterly) and they, along with her live performances, have been featured on American Public Media’s PipeDreams and BBC Radio 3.

Isabelle Demers is represented in North America exclusively by Phillip Truckenbrod Concert Artists, LLC.
