Banners helping to tell the PCPC story

Something new is happening on the Fayette Street side of Park Central Presbyterian Church. Five of these seven banners were hung this week, one between each pair of stained glass windows. The session voted for all seven banners so that they can be rotated periodically to help keep the message fresh.

The purpose: to encourage those driving or walking by our beautiful building to learn about what happens inside and then to visit. The banners, designed by Caroline Sheffield, reflect the church's faith in the city and concern for issues of social justice. A brochure about the church and its work is also being prepared.

Fellowship hour after worship

Do you wish you could help with fellowship hour, but are not sure how to proceed? There are several ways you can help.

- If you would like to “do” the fellowship hour, it is not complicated. There is plenty of help in learning the details. Jane Garrett is the most familiar with the process. She is glad to assist or show folks the ropes while she is here from September through June.
- If you would like to participate and doing this alone seems daunting, you can team up with another person or couple of people.
- If you would like to bring something to be served at fellowship hour, that is also welcome. It helps for the office to know a week ahead so that plans can be made accordingly.
- If you would like to be reimbursed for expenses, be sure to save your receipts. You can give these to Joan Deppa or Andrew McTyre.
- During the summer, there is especially a need for people to fill in. You can plan the whole coffee hour or find someone to share the responsibilities.

If you have any questions, please seek me out either at church or by email: egardner4@twcny.rr.com. Thank you!

May the Almighty continue to bless you and protect you forever. May all that you have dreamt and desired for, comes true this Birthday. Have a Happy Birthday dear.
God loves you!
