COMMUNION

WHILE THEY WERE EATING, JESUS TOOK BREAD, GAVE THANKS AND BROKE IT, AND GAVE IT TO HIS DISCIPLES, SAYING, TAKE AND EAT THIS IS MY BODY. THEN HE TOOK THE CUP, GAVE THANKS AND OFFERED IT TO THEM, SAYING, DRINK FROM IT, ALL OF YOU. THIS IS MY BLOOD OF THE COVENANT, WHICH IS Poured OUT FOR MANY FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS.

Care Packages for College Students

This year we are sending care packages to Zach Jones who has started his first semester at Nazareth College and to Emily Russo who is completing her last semester at SUNY ESF (State University of New York College of Environmental Science and Forestry). We also hope to provide care packages for a couple of local college students who need a little extra support. If you would like to contribute to the care packages, please bring items and leave them on the table in Sarah McTyre's office by Sunday, October 15. Please bring food items that do not expire quickly like fruit trail mix, granola bars, dark chocolate, popcorn, and coffee (regular or hazelnut). You can also write notes or cards to be included in the packages. Thank you for participating! Your support and prayers make a difference!

SISTERS OF ST. FRANCIS
Spirituality and Nature Center
at Alverna Heights, Fayetteville, New York

DRAWING CLOSER TO GOD AND NEIGHBOR

Come together for a day retreat on Saturday, October 21 at Alverna Heights in Fayetteville. We will explore ways we touch and are touched by God and neighbor as we reflect deeply on biblical stories in community. Come to open yourself to the work of God's Spirit among us. Come to nourish yourself with labyrinth walks, prayer, rich conversation, and good food. There is no cost to attend, refreshments are provided. You can sign up on the sheet at the Fayette Street entrance. Directions to Alverna Heights and other information will be available in the coming weeks.

2017 Faith for a Fair NY Conference and Poor People's

Campaign Mass Meeting

The 2017 Faith for a Fair New York Conference and Poor People's Campaign Mass Meeting will be held October 17-18 in Binghamton. This year's conference will bring together faith, labor and community leaders from across New York with leaders of the Poor People's Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival, including the Rev. Dr. William Barber.

October 17-18 in Binghamton we will release a report on the Truth Commission on Poverty in New York State's findings, learn about the national Poor People's Campaign launching in 2018, and discuss ways to build a stronger statewide movement for economic, social and racial justice in New York.

Andrew and Sarah McTyre will be attending this event and would be glad to share information with anyone else who is interested in going. For more details and registration information, you can click here.

Coffee and Scripture - there's a seat saved for you.

Each Sunday morning we get together to explore and reflect on the scripture passages that will be used in the morning service. We meet in the chapel on the third floor at 9:30. Sarah facilitates our discussions, and each of us can share our insights and questions.

We'll make sure the coffee pot is on and hope you'll join us.
